

Department of Education
& Professional Studies

Department of Theology &
Religious Studies

Theology & Ministry graduate programmes at King's College London

Designed in collaboration with ministers and practitioners, our programmes offer unrivalled diversity of course content and teaching expertise.

Modular Master's Programmes

The Theology and Ministry MA Programmes combine intellectual depth with a wide range of practical issues - from contemporary worship to Fair Trade. These programmes are aimed at those seeking new insights in their day-to-day ministry and new frameworks to understand the times in which we live.

MA Youth Ministry
MA Theology, Politics & Faith Based Organisations
MA Contemporary Ecclesiology
MA Contemporary Worship
MA Christian Education
MA Pastoral Ethics
MA Bible & Ministry
MA Mission & Ministry in the Modern Age

Programme Director: Dr Dominic Erdozain
Email: dominic.erdozain@kcl.ac.uk
Tel: 020 7848 2304

Doctorate in Ministry

The Doctorate in Ministry (DMin) offers clergy, ministers, and those in full-time church-related ministry an opportunity to pursue doctoral level studies relevant to their ministerial and theological interests. Students start with a programme of taught courses which lead to an individual research project.

For further information about either programme visit:
www.kcl.ac.uk/education

Programme Director: Revd Dr James Steven
Email: james.steven@kcl.ac.uk
Tel: 020 7848 3027